Alchimie Forever

ALCHIMIE FOREVER

The Geneva, Switzerland-based products recently were introduced to the United States market. The line was created by Luigi Polla, MD, a dermatologist, leader in European field of cosmetic laser therapy, and skin aging expert; and Barbara Polla, MD, a leader in biomedical research on antioxidants, stress proteins and a specialist in cellular aging. Entirely manufactured in Geneva, the line comprises ten products for women, three for men and one specialty product. The first U.S. customers include celebrity dermatologist Tina S. Alster, MD, Washington Institute for Dermatologic Laser Surgery in Washington D.C.; David Goldberg, MD, Skin & Laser Surgery Specialists of New York and New Jersey; Jame Heskett, MD, Wellpath in New York City; and Dr. Rojas, The International Wellness Center in South Carolina. 202-965-1205, info@alchimie-forever.com
