Alchimie Forever

Skincare products reduce damage, maintain pH

Alchimie Forever expands its skincare line with two new products available this month.

Superpulse rejuvenating eye balm has a unique combination of natural botanicals which help to prevent the formation of free radicals, and over time, reduce the effects of environmental stress, the company says.

Excimer purifying facial cleanser gently and rapidly dissolves makeup and dirt from the skin's surface while removing impurities from the pores, the company explains. The formula, containing papaya, cucumber and
