

Alchimie Forever is pleased to announce the opening of company's new Washington DC headquarters in the heart of Georgetown on famed shopping street Wisconsin Avenue. In addition to housing the company's North American corporate offices, the new space will serve as a visual representation of the brand. There will be a retail area for product display and sales, as well as a space for training, and most importantly, an aesthetician's room where Alchimie Forever signature facials will be demonstrated.
