GT: Congratulations! We were surprised to hear of your recent nuptials. What made you decide to have such a “hush-hush” wedding?

AP: We planned for months to do what we did. We wanted to get married in the French Quarter wedding chapel in New Orleans, and we wanted to do it just the two of us, with just two witnesses. We wanted it to be private, lowkey and intimate. We are getting married for us, its our day. Of course family was involved, but we wanted to do it exclusively for each other. It was kind of selfish, but it was perfect and exactly what we envisioned and hoped for.
